

I Have Never Changed

When you were going through your deepest sorrow, I was there. When you were beat down and discouraged beyond measure, I was there. When you gave up and threw your hands in the air, I was there. When you despaired of life and you thought, there's no more hope for me, I was there. When your world came crashing down and you couldn't see any hope, I was there. I have never left you nor forsaken you and I have always loved you beyond measure. I have never given up on you because I am the one who stands by your side and have determined to carry you through to victory because I have paid the full price of your redemption and I can't help Myself. I promised to present you faultless before My Father. I shed my blood and was beaten so that you could receive healing in My name. Even when you gave up on Me, I never gave up on you. When you doubted Me, I never doubted you, because I am your strength and My promise to you will always be true. I am determined to see you through every problem. I never change and am calling out to you to seek My face and receive My love for you so that you will walk hand in hand with Me. I am your dearest friend and will never let you down. So keep trusting in Me and open up your heart and receive all that I have for you and you will be blessed beyond measure and we will go into eternity with joy and satisfaction that my love was sufficient for you. For I never change. My love for you will never die. I am the LORD who makes a way for you to walk in My light and My presence will never leave you.
